

QUALITY AND ENVIRONMENT PROTECTION POLICY

The high-level goal of Electropoli Poland Sp. z o. o. activity is supplying the products complied with all European market requirements to ensure full Customer satisfaction.

In order to meet increasing Customers' expectations we accomplish all aspects of our activity according to the principles of quality management system IATF 16949 as well as ISO 14001 standard . We meet all legal provisions and others being in force, applicable recommendations and we engage to steady improvement of efficiency in all our actions connected with prevention and reduction of negative environmental impact of the pollutions created during production process.

Our strategy is based on the following head-notes, assurance of which is our superior care:

- products of highest quality and with economically optimal prices,
- terminable accomplishment of orders and contracts,
- compliance with legal and Customer's requirements concerning services and processes realization,
- using only modern technologic materials of the leading companies,
- rational use of resources and media and reduction of all losses and quality of waste,
- steady employees professional qualifications' improvement through the quality and environment trainings,
- steady improvement of employees' satisfaction determinant better work effects,
- research and implementation of new organizational and technical solutions in order to raise services' quality, diminish their negative impact on environment, optimize costs and efficiency,
- permanent supervision under machines and installations to minimize gas' and dusts' emission, taking care of right sewage management,
- processes supervision and their steady optimization for the purpose of natural environment respect,
- Customers requirements' realization and transfer information about them to our suppliers and cooperators,
- effective using of tools and methods of permanent improvement in all areas of company activity.

Quality and environment protection policy is accessible in public for all interested parties in writing as well as electronic form on the page www.electropoli.pl.

Bielsko – Biała 31.12.2017

Plant Director- Board Member

Krystian Szyпка